[] doesn't mention how reimbursement of this training is handled. It may be that the trainees are placed under the man-month rate immediately. Your comments about this proposal are requested.

Very truly yours,

Dan

To: Contracting Officer, SC-58

Subject: Amendment No. 12 to Contract No. SC-58

Returned herewith are the original and one copy of subject amendment, both fully executed. We have retained an executed copy for our file.

It is requested that the following provisions (which are normal to our tech rep contracts with AMC) be included when the contract is next amended:

TRAINING: The Contractor is authorized to furnish not to exceed 35 days of training for each assigned Contractor employee subject to the following conditions:

- (1) Limited to initial training of newly assigned personnel who are basically qualified to perform required services, but who are in need of additional training pertaining to their specific assignment under this contract.
- (2) Prior approval of the Commander of the using Command or his authorized representative must be specifically obtained.
- (3) The total number of days specified above is overall period which shall include Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays.

REFRESHER TRAINING: Refresher Training is that training which is required to adequately educate any contractor employee as to developments which are related to and have occurred since his assignment under this contract. The Contractor may furnish refresher training to each assigned contractor employee from time to time during the contract period when specifically approved and authorized by the Commander of the using Command or his authorized representative. In no event shall refresher training be authorized for contractor employees who were unqualified upon assignment or who were inadequately trained.

REPLACEMENT PERSONNEL: In the event that any contract technical services personnel has been on assignment at one location for a continuous period of twelve months, or longer, the replacement, transfer or reassignment of such personnel shall be considered as being for the convenience of the Government. Moves from one location to another directed by the using Command shall be considered as being for the convenience of the Government and shall not be considered an interruption of service at one location.

Very truly yours,
